

Jessica Bettencourt

Entrepreneur
Speaker
Coach

Jessica is a successful entrepreneur. She has built two multi-million dollar businesses. She leads and coaches over 10,000 female entrepreneurs. Through business, she found a passion to encourage women to pursue their dreams. She has walked out her faith through a 17 year prayer journey to adopt and advocate for orphans. She believes average can be great when you allow God to lead.

Jessica is authentic, raw, vulnerable, and has a unique way of captivating her audience through her style and delivery. Jessica will make you laugh and cry, but overall, her powerful insight inspires people to take action and make a difference.”
Kristi R, entrepreneur, Bible study teacher

“We hired Jessica to speak on generosity at a dedication for our non profit facility. She brought the house down with a motivational message that inspired others to seek their purpose and do what they are called to do!”
Jonathan W., founder Given Wings

“You will laugh, you will cry, and then laugh even more, coming out the other side ready to go BE better and DO better than you ever imagined that you could... because now you totally believe that you can.”
Lyndy V., entrepreneur
