

Immigration Proposal

I'm sure this has been suggested before, but it seems appropriate. Go to an average MAGA rally. Make everyone take the current standard citizenship test. Deport everyone who doesn't pass. Including Trump.

Likewise arrest anyone not carrying a valid US birth certificate on their person. Let's be generous & only arrest those whose last names are originally derived from a language other than English.

No, you WEREN'T here first, remember? If your ancestors were ever tired, poor or yearning to breathe free, you're screwed. If your ancestors came with pockets full of cash, they'd better not have been pounds sterling, francs, deutschmarks, rubles, etc.

Me? Hey, pal, these are YOUR rules that YOU wanted, not mine! I never wanted to impose them on another human because he had the bad luck to be born outside the Lower 48* in the last 100 years. That's YOUR hang up and hypocrisy, hater.

\ As to "Lower 48", I understand that natives of Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico, don't count as "real Americans" to you. But they WERE in place before you, so you can pound sand.*

So unless you can prove old grt grt grt grt etc. grandpappy crossed the Pangea land bridge (and those particular immigration documents are REALLY tough to get, buckaroo...), you can stand at the end of the line at the border until the real "native Americans" process your application.

Whoops! I forgot. You and yours wanted that border CLOSED, didn't you?

Yeah. OK. I guess no America for you.

Thanks for writing rules that are just and fair to be imposed on someone else and thus volunteering for deportation.

Hey, you were right. This place just got a LOT nicer.
